Jute wine bottle carriers are a great way of packaging or displaying multiple bottles of wine. This jute bag comes with a removable jute divider.

This is one of our best-selling items, perfect for packaging wine bottles and of course the bags can also be used time and time again. A great gift to give your staff at Christmas time, or for displaying your product in a rustic and environmentally-friendly way all year round.

There is an area large enough on the bag to be printed with your logo or branding message. Our team of designers are more than happy to help you with this.
